CUSTOMS CONCEPTS

SIZES AND WEIGHTS

Documentation: Documentation is considered to be any document whose weight does not exceed 5 kg (Gibraltar 2 kg) and which has not been printed, such as national ID cards, passports, printed forms, company accounts, plans, deeds, etc.

Parcels: Parcels are considered to be any document over 5 kg (Gibraltar 2 kg), documentation equal to or less than 5 kg (Gibraltar 2 kg) that has been printed such as empty forms, brochures, catalogues, posters, business cards, books, etc. (in these cases the invoice for printing them should be provided) as well as any type of sample.

The following documentation is essential for the shipment of goods to the Canary Islands, Melilla, Andorra and Gibraltar:

NON-COMMERCIAL SHIPMENTS *

Original sales invoice and 1 copy with the following information:

- Details of the exporter, consignee (name, full address, tax ID number or national ID number).
- Detailed description of the goods.
- Value of the goods for statistical purposes (always greater than €0).

COMMERCIAL/PRIVATE SHIPMENTS *

Original sales invoice and 1 copy with the following information:

Commercial shipments:

- Name, full address, tax ID number or national ID number and EORI with the name of the holder, both of the Sender and the Recipient.
- Detailed description of the goods.
- Unit values and total value.
- Statistical units of the goods.
- Number of packages, gross and net weight.
- Exporter's conditions.

Private shipments:

- Sworn declaration stating: Name, address, national ID number of both the sender and the consignee (a photocopy of the sender's ID is required) detailed description of the goods and their value for statistical purposes (always greater than €0). Template available at www.nacex.com.

For each export service to any of these destinations the company or individual must enclose the authorization for shipping and/or representation, the template for which is available from their franchise (unless the customer can provide Global Dispatch authorization). Template available at www.nacex.com.

 All invoices must contain an original stamp and/or signature.
